

Music Business

The aims of the National Progression Award in Music Business are to provide opportunities for candidates to:

- gain an appropriate learning experience in Music Business
- raise an awareness and understanding of the structure of the UK music industry
- widen understanding of the rapid change and challenges experienced by the music industry
- develop a range of appropriate practical skills, knowledge and understanding relevant to contemporary Music Business practice
- gain an understanding of the UK music industry and employment opportunities within it
- gain skills and knowledge in: — music promotion — enterprise — organisational skill

The National Progression Award in Music Business is aimed at a wide target group: It is also expected that candidates who have studied other areas of the music industry such as performance-based courses or sound production will have an interest in expanding their knowledge of this area of the industry, particularly with the freelance nature of employment within the music industry.

Related Careers

Possible careers relating to the skills pupils learn in Music include:

- Arranger
- Instrument Technician (Piano Tuner/Instrument Maintenance)
- Instrumental Teacher
- Journalist
- Museum curator
- Music Teacher
- Musical Theatre
- Orchestral Musician
- Performer

Nicola Benedetti, Hans Zimmer, Lizzo, Sheku Kanneh-Mason and Lady Gaga have all built successful careers in Music.

