Dear Parent/Carer

We have booked a new play called 'I can go anywhere' by Douglas Maxwell at the Traverse Theatre in Edinburgh on Thursday 12th of December. This is play aimed at young people (14+) and the plot follows main character, Jimmy as he is seeking asylum in the UK. With just a few days before the substantive interview that's going to decide his fate, the stakes are high.

As I am sure you are aware, the drama department is always trying to provide students with opportunities to experience and benefit from watching professional theatre productions. This is a requirement of the Higher and Advanced Higher course, but also a fantastic way to extend the experience and skill set of young people at any level in Drama. The Higher students will be using this play for their Performance Analysis essay in their final exam and Advanced Higher will be using it for their Assignment. National pupils are invited to attend to widen their experience of theatre.

We will be travelling by coach to Traverse Theatre at approximately 12.30pm and so everyone should bring a packed lunch to eat when we arrive at the theatre.

Itinerary:

Depart School: Thursday 12th of December 12.30pm

Arrive at Traverse Theatre: Approximately 1.30pm (packed lunches - matinee starts at 2pm)

Depart Traverse Theatre: Show finishes approximately 3.30pm

Return to School: Approximately 4.15pm

Kit: Pupils should wear full school uniform as usual.

Groups: There will be two supervising teachers and pupils will not be permitted to leave the grounds of the theatre.

Payment: The total payment of £21 should be paid on Parent Pay by 11th of December 2019. Should you have any concerns please contact me to discuss payment options. Please also return the fully completed medical information slip.

Lots of interesting and useful information can be found on the Traverse Theatre website, however if you have any other questions or concerns regarding the trip, please do not hesitate to get in touch with myself or Mrs MacPherson via the school office. Please detail any medical concerns on the slip below and ask pupils to return to Miss MacNab by Tuesday 10th of December.

Yours faithfully
